

Job title: Post-doctoral fellow in pavement /construction materials
Department: Department of Civil and Environmental Engineering
Institution: Rowan University
Position start date: As soon as possible
Duration of the position: One year
The duration can be extended depending on the performance and availability of funds.

Responsibilities of the postdoctoral fellow:

Under the supervision of the principal investigator, the postdoctoral fellow will be working on funded research project to evaluate the fatigue endurance limit for airfield flexible pavements. He/she will be responsible for:

- Management of the project on a daily basis including conducting research and supervision of the undergraduate clinic students working on the project.
- Preparing reports and submitting papers for peer reviewed journal publications.
- Making presentations to sponsors and at conferences.

Qualifications required:

- Ph.D. in Civil Engineering
- Should have completed thesis defense and the dissertation must be approved by thesis committee prior to joining.

If interested, please submit the following to URL link:

<http://rowanuniversity.hodesiq.com/job-details.aspx?jobid=4010526>

1. Curriculum vitae and at least one of your sample publications
2. Names and contact information of two references.

For further information please contact:

Yusuf Mehta, Ph.D., P.E.

Department of Civil and Environmental Engineering

Email: Mehta@rowan.edu

Phone: 856-256-5327

College of Engineering
Civil and Environmental Engineering
Rowan University
201 Mullica Hill Road
Glassboro, NJ 08028-1701

856-256-5320
856-256-5242 fax