

Angular Simple Harmonic Motion

Purpose: To demonstrate angular simple harmonic motion and how natural frequency depends on moment of inertia.

Location: room 136, shelf O3

The distances of the masses from the axis of rotation may be varied to show how the natural frequency changes with moment of inertia. The average period can be estimated by counting oscillations and measuring time using the wall clock.