

Pascal's Vases

Purpose: To demonstrate that a liquid in static equilibrium will have the same surface level (height) in different connected vessels regardless of their shapes (so long as capillary action is negligible).

Location: room 136, shelf O4

This phenomenon is a direct consequence of the dependence of pressure on depth and density in conjunction with Pascal's principle.