

Soda Bottle Resonance

Purpose: To demonstrate that a soda bottle has certain natural resonance tones (frequencies) that depend on cavity size.

Location: room 146, shelf O3

Blow into the empty bottle thereby exciting a low-pitched resonance in the bottle. Fill the bottle with varying amounts of water to demonstrate that shorter air columns have higher pitched resonance frequencies.